DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

An Official Draftsman has approved the drawings.

Objection to the Disclosure

37 CFR 1.163

The following is a quotation of section (a) of 37 CFR 1.163:

(a) The specification must contain as full and complete a disclosure as possible of the plant and the characteristics thereof that distinguish the same over related known varieties, and its antecedents, and must particularly point out where and in what manner the variety of plant has been asexually reproduced. In the case of a newly found plant, the specification must particularly point out the location and character of the area where the plant was discovered.

35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

In plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 161, the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112 are limited.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

As specific to United States Plant Patent applications, the specifics of 37 CFR 1.164

(reproduced below) are controlling:

The claim shall be in formal terms to the new and distinct variety of the specified plant as described and illustrated, and may also recite the principal distinguishing characteristics. More than one claim is not permitted.

In plant applications filed under 35 U.S.C. 161, the requirements of 35 U.S.C. are limited. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 162:

No plant patent shall be declared invalid for noncompliance with section 112 of this title if the description is as complete as is reasonably possible. The claim in the specification shall be in formal terms to the plant shown and described.

The disclosure is objected to under 37 CFR 1.163(a) because the specification presents less than a full and complete botanical description and the characteristics which distinguish over related known varieties.

More specifically:

- A. Page 1, line 19, the word "taken" should be deleted because it is unclear where the asexual reproduction was produced. Correction is necessary.
- B. Page 2, lines 6-7, the recitation regarding the most similar cultivar to the claimed plant are its parents is not sufficient. While searching through the Internet for other hybrids of Agastache, the cultivar Blue Fortune appears to be similar to the claimed plant. The botanical characteristics that distinguish 'Blue Fortune' from the instant cultivar are the plant size and the foliage fragrance. Applicant must set forth in the specification a brief description as to how the new variety is distinguished from related known cultivars.
- C. Page 3, lines 7-9, the recitation, "The photograph at the tope of the sheet..." does not appear to correspond with the attached photograph. It appears the photograph of the claimed flowering plant is on the right side and not on the left side when the photograph is turned on its side. When the photograph is on its side, the top of the sheet is on the right side. In addition, words must appear in horizontal form, when the photograph is either upright or turned on its side. See 37 CFR 1.84(i).

D. Page 3, lines 9-10, the recitation, "The photograph at the bottom of the sheet..." does not appear to correspond with the attached photograph. It appears the photograph of a close-up view of the claimed plant's flowering spike is on the left side and not on the right side when the photograph is turned on its side. When the photograph is on its side, the top of the sheet is on the right side. See 37 CFR 1.84(i).

E. Applicant should set forth in the specification the average number of flowers and flower buds per flowering stem.

F. Applicant should set forth in the specification the average size of the flower spike (length and diameter).

G. Page 7, lines 19-20, the recitation "97A" regarding the color designation of the immature and mature flower does not appear to correspond with the attached photograph. The color of the florets appears close to the purple group 76B. Applicant should check for accuracy.

H. Applicant should set forth in the specification a botanical description of the peduncle such as average length, diameter, surface texture, and color designation with reference to ~~an~~ the employed color chart.

Amc
5/27/01

Art Unit: 1661

I. Pages 8-9, with regard to the reproductive organs color designation such as the anther, stigma and style does not appear to correspond with the attached photograph. The colors of the reproductive organs appear close to the purple group and not the violet-blue group.

Applicant should check for accuracy.

J. Applicant should set forth in the specification a botanical description of the fruit, such as type, shape, size, and color designation.

The above listing may not be complete. Applicants should carefully compare the claimed plant with the botanical descriptions set forth in the specification to ensure completeness and accuracy and to distinguish the plant within this expanding market class. Any further botanical information should be imported into the specification, as should any additional or corrected information relative to same.

Claim Rejection

35 USC § 112, 1st and 2nd Paragraphs

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs as not being supported by a clear and complete botanical description of the plant for reasons set forth in the Objection to the Disclosure Section above.

Comments

The information regarding the cultivar After Eight was described in the Plant Breeder's Right application number 20011570 filed in European Union on November 16, 2001 and published on February 15, 2002. The printed publication was accessible to the public more than one year prior to filing of this instant application. A publication relied upon as prior art under 35

Art Unit: 1661

USC 102(b) must be enabling. The text of the relied upon publications standing alone would not enable one skilled in the art to practice the claimed invention.

When the claim is drawn to a plant, the reference, combined with knowledge in the prior art, must enable one of ordinary skill in the art to reproduce the plant. See In re Le Grice, 301 F.2d 929, 133 USPQ 365 (CCPA 1962). If one skilled in the art could obtain or reproduce the plant from a publicly available source, then a publication describing the plant would have an enabling disclosure.

In the declaration, Applicant states that the claimed plant has not been sold or available to the public anywhere in the world. Therefore, the printed publication cannot be enabled because the disclosed cultivar has not been propagated from publicly available materials.
